

MEDIA ADVISORY

15 September 2021

The Chair of the Sheku Bayoh Inquiry, Lord Bracadale, has today made a restriction order in relation to material disclosed to core participants.

The order is published on the Inquiry website at www.shekubayohinquiry.scot.

The order, made under the Inquiries Act 2005, applies to all members of the public including core participants, their recognised legal representatives and the media.

The Inquiry would also like to remind journalists of their obligations around responsible reporting, as laid out in a previous media advisory published on 12 January 2021.

All media advisories and press releases are available on the Inquiry website.
