I am 15 years of age [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. I am friends with Tegan Morgan.

On Saturday 2 May 2015, I stayed overnight at Tegan's address at [REDACTED] Arran Crescent Kirkcaldy. We stayed in the bedroom which Tegan has which faces onto Arran Crescent. About midnight or maybe a bit later we went to bed. I think I fell asleep about 1 o'clock in the morning. About just after 5 o'clock in the morning, I woke up. It was definitely daylight. Tegan woke up as well and we just sat talking at the edge of the bed. After a while, maybe half an hour, I heard noises outside. I said to Tegan if she knew what the noises were and Tegan opened the window so that we could see out. I looked out of the window, and saw a black man, who I think had a hoody on, lying on top of another man punching him. The man looked Pakistani that he punched and he had on a parker jacket with a furry hood. I heard shouting but I couldn't hear what was being said. They were arguing while the black man was punching the other man. This went on for about 7 minutes between the arguing and shouting and punches. I didn't see the Pakistani man punching the black man.

The fight stopped and the Pakistani man got up and ran away to the right hand side where we were watching from. The black man looked angry and walked in the same direction. He didn't run.

I lost sight of the two men at this point. Tegan went to wake up her parents and we all went downstairs to the living room where we looked out of the window.

It was quiet for a bit and then I saw the black man coming out of the culdesac to the right hand side. Tegan's dad Neil went outside to talk to the man but I didn't see him talking to him. I sat at the couch and looked out of the window.

Neil came back in and said that the black guy was Chris who is a neighbour from across the road. Neil said that the man had a knife but he wouldn't come in for a cup of tea. Neil also said the man had shown him the knife and pushed it on to his stomach to show that it wasn't sharp.

We were all sitting talking about what had happened, when I saw the same man trying to get into his house across the road. He looked angry and walked back out to the pavement. There was a car parked outside his house. He started hitting the top of the car with the handle of the knife and was shouting and screaming when he was doing this.

He then cut through some gardens and jumped over some hedges and disappeared. I didn't see which direction he went in, that was the last I saw him.

We stayed in the living room talking about what had happened. About 20 minutes later I saw a van but I can't remember what colour it was. The man that had been assaulted by the black man got out of the van. He was having a laugh with the driver who I didn't see. The man went into the white car and drove away to the left as we were looking at it.

This is a true and accurate record of what I saw on Sunday 3 May 2015.

I should add that the car the Pakistani guy drove away was either silver or white, I'm not sure.
